

2001: A CAPITOL ODYSSEY
Keynote Speaker
AALL President, Robert Oakley
The Northern California Association of Law Libraries is a chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries

2001: A Capitol Odyssey

Friday, March 16

10:00 - 1:00	Registration
9:30 - 11:30	Library tours
11:00	Exhibits open
12:00 - 1:00	Fajita bar light lunch
1:00 - 2:30	Keynote Address: 2001: A Legislative Odyssey: Robert Oakley, AALL President
1:45 - 2:30	The Legislative Counsel's Office - An Insider's Report Bion J. Gregory, Legislative Counsel of California www.leginfo.ca.gov/legcnsl.html
2:30 - 3:15	"Chocolate Lover's Break" and exhibits
3:15 - 4:00	Mapping the Virtual Capitol: Librarians as Navigators John Jewell, Chief, Information Services, California State Library www.ca.gov
4:00- 4:30	Beyond the Limits of the Possible Diana Paque, Director, Library of California www.library.ca.gov/loc
6:30 - 7:30	Pre-dinner reception at Delta King restaurant
7:30 - 10:00	Suspects Murder Mystery Theatre at the Delta King Restaurant www.deltaking.com/suspects

Saturday, March 17

8:30 - 9:30	Continental breakfast and exhibits
9:30 - 10:30	Biotechnology and the Creation of Ethics Raymond Coletta, Professor of Law, McGeorge School of Law Owning the Secret of Life: Biotechnology and Property Rights Revisited Kojo Yelapaala, Professor of Law, McGeorge School of Law www.mcgeorge.edu
10:30 - 11:00	Break and exhibits

11:00 - 11:30	Electronic Case Filing Project Doug Purcell, Systems Manager, U.S. District Court, Northern California www.cand.uscourts.gov
11:00 - 12:30	Can you name that tune? Can you find that tune? - The Progress of Technology and its Implications for Copyright Darryl M. Woo, Fenwick & West, Palo Alto (counsel for Napster) www.fenwick.com
1:00 - 2:30	Institute luncheon; Holiday Inn, 16th Floor The Rosetta Disk: An Experiment in 10,000 Year Librarianship Jim Mason, Long Now Foundation, San Francisco www.longnow.org
2:30 - 3:00	Awarding of prizes; adjournment

Information

Grants: NOCALL is offering four grants.

Registration: DEADLINE IS MARCH 15, 2001

$95 NOCALL/SCALL/SANDALL members
 $105 SLA/ALA members
 $125 Non-members/late registrants
 $65 Student
 $65 Per day (includes meal ticket for that day only)

Saturday luncheon choices:

*Garlic tri-tip *Vegetarian lasagna *Teriyaki chicken

Event tickets (for guests)

$15 Friday fajita bar lunch
 $40 Friday reception and Suspects Murder Mystery dinner Theatre
 $20 Saturday luncheon

Hotels (Mention NOCALL Institute - deadline is February 15.):

Holiday Inn Capitol Plaza: 916/446-0100 or 1-800/465-4329

$137 king w/sofa or king only

Oldtown Vagabond Inn, 909 Third Street: 916/446-1481

$80 single or double

Mention NOCALL Institute - deadline is February 15.

For alternate accommodations and Sacramento information, see www.sacramentocvb.org

Library Tours: Friday morning

9:30 & 10:30 a.m.	Sacramento County Public Law Library , Hall of Justice
-------------------	--

	Building, 813 Sixth Street
9:30 & 10:30 a.m.	California State Law Library , Library & Courts Building, 914 Capitol Mall, 3rd Floor
9:30 & 10:30 a.m.	Golden State Museum ($4 admission fee), State Archives Building, 1020 O Street
9:30 & 10:30 a.m.	Kronick, Moskowitz, Tiedemann & Girard , Wells Fargo Building, 400 Capitol Mall, 27th Floor

Spring Institute Committee:

Sue Welsh, Institute Chair, McGeorge School of Law

Michael Daw, Golden Gate University

Pete Egler, Sacramento County Public Law Library

Maryanne Gerber, Golden Gate University

Maggie Kaufman, Office of the State Public Defender

Lille Koski, University of San Francisco

Evy Posamentier, McGeorge School of Law

Carolina Rose, Legislative Research, Inc.

Erika Wayne, Stanford University