

CALIFORNIA LAW LIBRARIANS 2002 LEGISLATIVE ADVOCACY DAY

Tuesday - March 12, 2001, 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Registration Deadline: March 5, 2002

CO-SPONSORS

- Northern California Association of Law Libraries \(NOCALL\)
- Council of California County Law Librarians \(CCCLL\)
- Southern California Association of Law Libraries \(SCALL\)
- San Diego Area Law Libraries \(SANDALL\)

LOCATION

- California Secretary of State Building, First Floor Multi-Purpose Room
- 1500 11th Street (corner of "O" Street)
- Sacramento, CA. (See Registration form for parking information.)

REGISTRATION

- $25.00 fee includes continental breakfast and luncheon (vegetarian items available).
- Registration Deadline: March 5, 2002
- Registration Form

PROGRAM

Participants will:

- Receive training in advocacy techniques
- Practice these techniques with colleagues
- Review an information packet with background on issues important to California law librarians
- Visit their legislators at the State Capitol to discuss these issues
- Information packets to leave with legislators will also be provided.

WORKSHOP AGENDA

- 8:00 a.m. Registration and distribution of advocacy packets; continental breakfast
- 9:00 Welcome and Introduction of Speakers:
 - Shirley David, Director of the Sacramento County Law Library
- 9:15 - 10:15 Keynote Address:
 - Keynote Address: "Effective Legislative Advocacy Techniques," Michael Mattoch, Chief Consultant to the Assembly Insurance Committee
- 10:15 - 11:15 Roundtable:
 - "Effective Legislative Advocacy Tips from the Professionals"
 - Moderator: Carolina Rose, Director of Legislative Research, Inc. and former Chief of Staff for Senator Nicholas C. Petris.
 - Michael Y. Corbett, Owner of Corbett & Associates, a Sacramento-based government relations and consulting firm representing the Council of California County Law Librarians, the California Judicial Council, and several governmental agencies.

- Frances Fort, Senior Consultant to Darrell Steinberg, Assembly Member, 9th District.
- 11:15-12:15 p.m. Buffet Luncheon
- 12:15-12:30 Issue Brief:
 - "Funding for California County Law Libraries," Charles R. Dyer, Director of the San Diego County Law Library
- 12:30 - 1:15 Role Play Exercise:
 - Small groups will review the issues and practice advocacy techniques (information packet provided). Each group will include at least one county law librarian.
- 1:15 -3:30 Visits to legislators (scheduled appointments) at the State Capitol
- 4:00 -5:00 Evaluation / Debriefing: What's next?