Global Securities Information, Inc. (GSI) is a provider of specialty information services to legal and financial professionals involved with corporate finance, securities, mergers and acquisitions. With unmatched breadth, accuracy and currency of relevant information, GSI offers distinctive research tools to provide “the right answer, right away.

Phillip L. Brown co-founded Global Securities Information, Inc. (GS) and has served as Chief Executive Officer and co-Chairman of the Board since GSI’s inception in 1988. Today Mr. Brown is on the advisory board of Cyvest. He resides in Mc. Lean, Virginia with his wife, son and two cats.

Mr. Brown has a B.S. in Business Administration from Old Dominion University. He was a professional researcher at the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for Charles E. Simon & Company. Mr. Brown, later, met Richard Harrison, also a professional researcher, at the SEC public reference room. In 1988, after recognizing a growing need for SEC information, he and Richard Harrison left their companies and founded Global Securities Information, Inc. Today, GSI’s web-based LIVEDGAR service is used by every one of the top 100 law firms in the United States and thousands of other legal and professionals involved with corporate finance, securities, mergers and acquisitions.

Mr. Brown is a frequent speaker at legal industry meetings where he shares his unique research expertise, knowledge of the SEC and understanding of how to use technology to mine the SEC for valuable information. Mr. Brown may be contacted at pbrown@gsionline.com
